BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

Elder Jesse Shackelford was born in Greene county, N. C., Nov. 17th, 1823, and united with the church at Hart's meeting house about the year 1851 and was licensed to preach the same year. On Jan. 24th, 1852 he was ordained by Elders James Moore and Matthew Manning. Ever since that time he was a faithful servant, ever ready and willing to blot out error and establish the truth; and he was an able exponent of the doctrine of the Bible. His sickness was of short duration. He died of typhoid fever, Oct. 28th, 1892, surrounded by many friends. He left a wife and nine children to mourn the loss of a kind father and an affectionate husband.

Thou art gone dear brother, but we hope to meet you in a more brighter and glorious region, where winter winds and stormy blasts are over, where the wicked will cease troubling and the weary will be at rest.

God speaks his love from hill to glen,
From sun and moon and stars;
He shows how full of love to men
His Providences are.

He clothes the morning world with light,
He paints the sunset skies;
He drops the curtain of the night
And earth in darkness lies.

N. H. BEAMAN.

Dec. 13th, 1862.

Elder Joseph Tripp, departed this life Oct. 10th, 1892, aged 68 years and seven months, he leaves a devoted wife, five children, six grand children and a host of friends to mourn his loss. He united with the Free Will Baptist church about 25 years previous to his death. He buckled on the armour and entered the ministerial profession, and was ever diligent and zealous in his profession. He has trod the wine press alone; he has passed over the river, but not without hope in the glory of our Redeemer. He was a loving husband, a kind parent and a warm Christian. Me thinks I can see him now in that heavenly host, singing praise to the Lamb, the Great I Am, for his everlasting deliverance; for his delight was in the law of the Lord, and in his law did he meditate day and night The Psalmist says, "He shall be like unto a tree planted by the river of water that bringeth forth his fruit in his season, and his leaf also shall not wither, for the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous." His pilgrimage on earth is now ended. He has fought the good fight, he has gained the crown, the victory is won, and everlasting peace and happiness is his. He now awaits the resurrection morn to join Jesus, our Redeemer, in the air and have part in the first resurrection; there to join in anthems of praise with those who have gone before.

Jesus, thou rescue of my soul,
I have met thee on this heavenly shore,
I will part with thee no more,
Hosanna to thy eternal name.

J. F. HEATH.

Elder J. S. Cummings, early in life, was impressed with the great importance of diligently seeking after more light, as it is in Christ Jesus. In 1840 he was baptized by Rev. Josiah Finch, at Newbern, N. C. At the age of 19 he married Miss Mariah Jones who, throughout his life, was ever a faithful helpmeet. He became fully identified with the Free Will Baptist church in 1875 and was ordained to preach on the 5th Sunday in April, 1875, by Elder H. Jones and others; and afterwards was a bold defender of the Free Will Baptist doctrine. His chief delight was to preach the Gospel. In his last days he often spoke of his home above. He bore his afflictions with Christian fortitude, and fell asleep in Jesus, in the town of Kinston, in Jan. 1892, at the age of 67. He was beloved and respected by all who knew him.

HENRY CUNINGHAM.

Elder O. Harper was born October the 6th 1812, and died May the 7th 1892, making his stay on earth 79 years, 7 months 1 one day. Elder Harper was married to Miss Macy Simmons, who was of a Christian family. He leaves a family of five children, 29 grand children, 13 great grand children and a host of friends to mourn his loss, but thank God they mourn not as those who have no hope. Elder Harper united with the church at Little Creek, Greene county and was baptized by Elder McGowan. In a short time after that he was impressed to proclaim the gospel of Christ to his fellow comrades. He did it with Christian fortitude and zeal. He did a good deal of work as a minister, such as marrying and preaching funerals, and visiting the sick. But the good brother is done with his earthly career; he is gone to that peaceful abode of the faithful, where there will be no earthly troubles to molest the good brother. He awaits the resurrection morn, when mortals will put on immortality and soar away to meet the Lord in the air. The funeral of the good brother, (by request) was preached by the writer—Text: Rev. 14: 13. The text was selected by the deceased while in health. We did the work the best we could. We always feel too unworthy to preach the funeral of such men as Elder Harper. Good bye, dear brother, you are gone to join the church triumphant, to sing the song of the redeemed of the Lord and mingle with the justified saints in glory. When the Lord who is our life shall appear, then shall we all appear with him in glory.

THE OBITUARY OF ELDER R. GASKINS.

Elder R. Gaskins, departed this life Jan. 8th, 1893. He was born in Craven Co., N. C., Aug. 24th, 1824, and united with the Free Will Baptist church at Kitt Swamp, Craven Co., in 1846, and was baptized by Elder Thos. Moore. He remained a useful and consistent member until Oct. 9th, 1858; he then being impressed to proclaim the gospel to sinful and dying men, and point them to the lamb of God. He was ordained to the ministry in which sphere of life he stood as a bold watchman on the walls of Zion, and proclaimed aloud the warning to his fellowman, to flee the wrath to come. He was ever zealous to his profession; he never failed to declare the whole council of God. The good brother, after a tedious affliction, quietly past over the river. His funeral was preached by Elder J. Bennett. He has laid aside this earthly robe, he has takened his peaceful abode in that promised land, to await the resurrection morn, when mortal shall put on immortality, and soar away to meet Jesus (our Remdeemer) in the air, and sing the song of Moses and the Lamb, and forever be with our Lord in glory. Fare-well from earth, dear brother, you have fought the good fight, and victory is thine. Alas, may we all meet thee in that heavenly land and strike hands in endless praise to Jesus' name for our redemption there.

Sleep on dear brother sleep, until the resurrection morn, then thou shall rise with palms of victory to the skies, and sing praise to the lamb, that bore the cross for poor fallen man; there we will view his head, feet and hands, that sacrifice for fallen man.

JAMES. F. HEATH.

THE OBITUARY OF ELDER JOSHUA HARREL.

Elder Joshua Harrel, was born in the year of our Lord, 1805, and died April the 9th, 1892. Elder Harrel united with the church at Gum Swamp, Pitt Co., in 1846, and was baptized by Elder Jacob Utley. He was soon impressed to proclaim the word of God to dying sinners, and point them to the lamb of God. He was licensed by Gum Swamp church, March the 21st, 1849, and ordained Sept. the 21st, 1850, by Elder Calvin Ruff. He did a great deal of work in the church in pleading with the ungodly to forsake their evil ways and come to Christ. He was also very good to the poor and visited the sick; but the good brother is done with his trials on earth, he has gone to that peaceful abode of the faithful. He waits the resurrection morn, when mortals shall put on immortality and soar away to meet the Lord in the canopy of heaven. Our dear brother has crossed the river to join the chorus with the angels, he is among the harpers, harping with their harps before the throne of God. Good-by dear brother, you have to join the church triumphant to sing the song of Moses and the Lamb, and forever be with Jesus in glory. When the Lord calls, we must go.

T. H. Barnhill.
